“filling bowls with food and love”

EMPTY BOWLS is a fundraiser designed to raise awareness and funds in our battle to end hunger in the Metrolina region.

Potters of all ages, skill levels and approaches to clay will donate hundreds of handmade ceramic bowls. The public is invited to attend this wonderful event for just $40 per person. Guests will receive a delicious lunch, a handcrafted pottery bowl of their choice and a free GoPlaySave Charlotte Coupon book ($30 value).

The bowl then serves as a reminder that someone’s bowl is always empty and that we need to continue our efforts to end hunger in our community. For the past several years this event has sold out.

Event includes a pottery demonstration, silent auction, music, food and much more!

To sponsor this event, please contact:

Celia Farmer,
Community Development Coordinator
704-805-1750
cfarmer@secondharvest.org

Event to benefit:

Second Harvest Food Bank of Metrolina

Title sponsors:

Food Lion Feeds and the
CRVA (Charlotte Regional Visitors Authority)

When:

Friday, March 18, 2022, 11:00 am - 1:00 pm

Where:

Richardson Ballroom
Charlotte Convention Center

Guest Emcee:

Maureen O’Boyle, WBTV News

What you can do to help:

Become a sponsor or buy individual tickets and help END hunger

How your ticket purchase helps:

Over 512,000 people in the Metrolina region live at or below the poverty level, including over 218,000 children and seniors. Individuals in poverty have to make difficult choices like whether to purchase food or pay other expenses such as utilities, rent or medical care. Your sponsorship and ticket purchase can make a real difference in the lives of our less fortunate neighbors. Please join us in raising funds and awareness in the battle against hunger.
