Tuesday, Dec. 17, 2019, Carolina Panthers wide receiver Curtis Samuel and Harris Teeter associates will assemble 1,000 holiday meal bags which will be given to families-in-need served by Second Harvest Food Bank of Metrolina. The bag assembly is hosted in conjunction with Harris Teeter’s annual Harvest Feast Round Up Campaign; the bags will be distributed through the Second Harvest Food Bank of Metrolina’s network of partner agencies.

Each meal bag has enough food to provide a meal for a family of four and contains products for a delicious and easy holiday meal including: a turkey breast, stuffing, buttery mashed potatoes, yams, gravy, corn, green beans, cranberry sauce, rolls and a frozen pie.

“Thanks to amazing partners like Harris Teeter and Second Harvest Food Bank of Metrolina for helping me bring my dream to fruition,” said Samuel. “Together, we are able to give back to the community in such a powerful and meaningful way.”

This bag assembly is part of the Company’s annual Harvest Feast programming. Throughout November and December, Harris Teeter’s shoppers are invited to Round Up their transaction at checkout to benefit its hunger-relief partners.
