

Media Alert

** PHOTO / VIDEO OPPORTUNITY**

WHAT: Employees of Sealed Air, the global leader in protective packaging and originator of BUBBLE WRAP® brand cushioning, will participate in what the company does best: packaging.

Sealed Air is donating 11 tons of pinto beans to Second Harvest Food Bank of Metrolina along with the time and talent of its staff and over 18 thousand feet of food-grade film needed to package individual one-pound bags of beans using Sealed Air's CRYOVAC® brand packaging equipment. The beans will be distributed by Second Harvest Food Bank of Metrolina to those in need in the greater Charlotte community.

WHEN: Wednesday, February 19, 2020
11am to noon

WHERE: Sealed Air Corporate Headquarters
2415 Cascade Pointe Blvd, Charlotte, NC 28269

- Enter the main building (2415) and check-in to receive a guest badge (a Sealed Air representative will meet media outlets and take them to the Innovation & Development building where the event takes place).
- Free visitor parking is available in front of the main building. If the visitor lot is full, additional free parking is available in two nearby parking decks on the campus.

WHO: Karl Deily, Sealed Air Senior VP / Chief Commercial Officer and Food Bank Board Member and Myra Jones, Food Bank Manager of Agency Services and Programs will be available for interviews.
